

I support the ARRL's restructuring plan. The Morse code element has been eliminated as a licensing requirement overseas. Other digital modes of communication such as PSK can provide reliable emergency communications by Amateur Radio Operators that are not proficient in the Morse code. The opportunity to use HF privileges will also encourage Novice and General class members to learn the code for additional spectrum access.